Solemnity of All Saints Year B

1st November 2015

Today we celebrate our future: eternal life praising and glorifying God. We are journeying through time with our eyes fixed on the world to come where we will see God face to face. Today's gospel passage of the Beatitudes calls 'happy' those on earth who are gentle, merciful, poor in spirit, peacemakers and those who suffer for what is right. May we all find a place in God's heavenly kingdom.

Today is the first day of November 2015. Very occasionally, this month has its beginning on a Sunday such as now. November is a very special month for us as we apply our thoughts and prayers to the welfare of our dearly departed loved ones. This month starts off on a high with the Solemnity Feast of All Saints; not just that special day when we publicly acknowledge, fete and honour the great saints who have trodden this earth, but every saint in heaven including those completely unknown to us.

Tomorrow (Monday), is All Souls' Day, that day each year when we expressly commemorate all the faithful departed including our brothers and sisters suffering the torments of Purgatory. We are able to assist them through the Communion of Saints that binds us to together in a relationship of love that transcends the life barrier which otherwise exists between us.

As mentioned last week, from today until the end of this month, the usual Remembrance Book is in place adjoining the baptismal font for parishioners to list the names of their departed loved ones. We do this so that our community may honour them in our prayers throughout November. Additionally, should you so desire, you could place their name in the basket provided in front of the altar, there also to remain until the end of the month. Blank cards for this purpose are available next to the Remembrance Book. Also, special envelopes are available for those wanting to have individual Masses celebrated in honour of loved ones.

Your prayers are particularly requested during the month for those parishioners who have departed this life since last All Souls' Day. Included in that number are those for whom I have undertaken requiem services. Their names are: Craig Huckstepp, Marjorie Cullen, Anthony Gilchrist, Alma Birrell, Ian Maguire and Leslie Dee (Patricia Dee's brother whose funeral was held last Wednesday. We extend to Patricia our sincere condolences in this tragic loss). Additionally, there are another seven people (the youngest 3 months) whose funerals I have conducted during this period. Please direct some of your prayers to all thirteen of these deceased brothers and sisters and their families. Many thanks!

THE WEEK TO COME: Unusually for us, there will be a Mass celebrated tomorrow (Monday 2nd November) to commemorate the souls of all the faithful departed in line with the earlier comments. Following that Mass, there will be no other weekday Masses in this parish for the rest of the week. The next Mass here will be Saturday's Vigil Mass at Mt Victoria (6.00pm) while next Sunday's Mass at Blackheath will be as normal. The reason for this once-only change is the removal of a cataract from my right eye. Sorry about that! Would be great if I didn't have to have it done!

CATHOLIC MISSION: As foreshadowed last week, today we have our once-a-year collection for the Australian Catholic Mission. There will be a short address by a representative from that charity at the end of this Mass. Envelopes are available at each entrance and on the pews in front of you. Thank you, in advance for your generosity on this occasion. A second collection will be arranged next week for those who are not able to contribute today.

DWF COLLECTIONS will occur on 8 and 15 November. God Bless! Father Bob
