First Sunday of Lent Ordinary Time Year B

18th February 2018

A retreat into a wild and lonely place can mean both death and renewal, crisis and opportunity. Everything in a wilderness can seem a threat: even small creatures like this gecko can be classed as 'wild beasts'. But when we become familiar with geckoes – if we have lived with them and really looked at them – the threat fades. The same goes for Mark's 'wild beasts', i.e. demons, which 'the Spirit drove' Jesus to face. They were inner demons that confronted Jesus and they posed no mortal threat once he had lived with them and faced up to them. The vital ingredients in this situation are time, courage and a little help from God. Lent is a time for us to face our personal demons and, if we are courageous and rely on divine help, then death will lead to renewal and crisis to opportunity.

LENT: It's not often that we celebrate both Ash Wednesday and St Valentine's Day on the same day in any year. However, such is the case this year. What a contrast! Love of God, and love of a person - the same love graced to us by God and returned to him in our loving relationship with him, is also that same love we have for another special human being in our life. Same love - different application (spiritual and physical)!

Today we move spiritually from 'Ordinary Time' to 'Lent'. However, even after these first few days of Lent we should already be progressing in our Lenten endeavours in what is for most of us our major penitential effort for this year. Over the next 36 days we will have many opportunities to join Lenten activities that will help us form an ever closer relationship with God and each other - a time when we seek to revise, renew and reset our priorities in this life. Lent is that special time of the year when the liturgies are particularly framed to support us as we self-analyse where we are at, where we want to be, and how best to reach that goal. Yes! Lent is a time for action!

In passing, I have also to record the fact that 14th February was the 91st birthday of one of the 'nicest young ladies' in our parish - Betty Zeman! Congratulations Betty on achieving such an extraordinary milestone in your life.

Last Sunday, I invited any interested 'family' to take without charge a copy of a Lenten publication titled 'Surrender,' that sets before us on a daily basis a Lenten programme of renewal for families or groups. There are two copies only left should you be interested. No further copies are available as the entire print run has been sold out. Better hurry!

As to the two Ash Wednesday Masses: the 9.30am Mass attracted about 25 parishioners/visitors, while the 7.30pm Mass saw about 15 people attending with Fr Paul Hanna celebrating. Many thanks for sharing yourself with us in this way, Fr Paul!

CATHOLIC FOUNDATION (the old DWF Fundraiser): As indicated last week, today is the first of two opportunities available to you to contribute to the crucial work of the Parramatta Diocese, the other occasion being next weekend (25th February). Envelopes for this collection are arrayed in front of you in your pew. Please give generously to this fund as your contribution will greatly assist the many charitable activities within our Diocese, including many recipients who live in the Blue Mountains. A few of the ministries that this foundation supports include priests and religious training, Catholic Social Services, family support and youth activities. So, thank you in advance for your generosity. For those unable to contribute today, there will be the already-mentioned second opportunity to do so next weekend. Please place the completed envelopes on the second collection plates.

PROJECT COMPASSION (Caritas): This Lenten project's introduction has been delayed until 1st March and will conclude on 31st March, as mentioned last Sunday. The household collection boxes, however, are available now at each entrance to the church. Please take one and return to us over Easter. Many thanks for your ongoing support of this long-standing parish charity fundraiser. Figures for last Sunday's Pancake Feast are not yet available to me, so perhaps we will find out at the conclusion of this Mass the exact amount raised.

TAIZE SERVICE
You are warmly invited to our first Taize Service for 2018 this Sunday 18th Feb from 5pm-6pm at Leura Uniting Church. The theme is "Experiencing courage and comfort".

Please pray for the sick and their carers: Barry Bowden, John & Marion Crowley, Bill Grieves, Kevin Madden, Maria Slater and John Tweedie.

In loving memory Rick Frazer 22nd February

As with most of our charitable endeavours, there are far too many people to thank individually for their efforts in this regard. Please take this mention as a personal 'thank you' from every parishioner - those who provided the 'mix', syrup and sugar, our culinary artists, and us consumers! How about that!

God Bless! Father Bob
