11th March 2018

Here is another reading
 from John's gospel
 and it contains the third reference to the passion/resurrection: 'so must the Son of Man be lifted up'.
 Here it is apparent that the material world is so precious that, in order
 to save the world,
 God was prepared to blur
 the boundaries between divinity and materiality
 in the person of Jesus.

As a community bonded together through faith,
 we are called to share our experience of God with those we meet each day,
 in particular, those in our local community.

We acknowledge the Darug and Gundungurra people, the traditional custodians of this land and pay our respects to the elders past and present, including those who may be with us today.

MARY, A NEW FEAST DAY: A new feast day for Mary has been promulgated by Pope Francis. Dated 3rd March 2018, I quote from the Vatican media release:

“Today, Pope Francis has decreed that the devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary, under the title ‘Mother of the Church’ be inserted into the Roman Calendar. The liturgical celebration, ‘Beata Mariae Virginis, Ecclesiae Matris’, is to be celebrated annually, as a Memorial. From this year, all the dioceses and parishes will celebrate this Feast the Monday following Pentecost. This official celebration underlines a characteristic of the Virgin Mary, who is both mother of Christ and of the Church. Being a Memorial, this celebration includes its own readings. All calendars and liturgical books will thus include this Memorial for both the Mass and the Liturgy of the Hours.

The Decree was released by the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments. Cardinal Robert Sarah, its Prefect, explained the Pope’s decision is based on the ancient tradition built around the devotion to Mary as Mother of the Church. Cardinal Sarah also explained Pope Francis wishes to promote this devotion in order to ‘encourage the growth of the maternal sense of the Church in the pastors, religious and faithful, as well as a growth of genuine Marian piety.’

The decree itself revisits and explains the history of Marian theology in the Church’s liturgical tradition and the writings of the Church Fathers. It quotes Saint Augustine and Pope Saint Leo the Great’s reflections on the importance of the Virgin Mary not only in the life of the Church, but also in the life of Christ Himself.

This decree was signed on February 11, 2018, feast of Our Lady of Lourdes. The liturgical texts, as well as their translations approved by the episcopal conferences, will be published after the Dicastery.”

Other details of this Memorial Feast of Mary, Mother of the Church, including the readings associated with it, might be expected in the near future.

LAETARE SUNDAY: Today, the Fourth Sunday of Lent, is one of the two occasions in the Church year when the priest is entitled to wear pink (or should I say ‘rose-coloured’) vestments. This is an optional choice, which is just as well given that I do not possess vestments of that colour. The word “Laetare” is taken from the first word of today’s Entrance Antiphon whose translation from the original Latin means “Rejoice with Jerusalem!” By way of interest, the other Sunday authorised for the wearing of pink vestments occurs on the Third Sunday of Advent. From this Sunday forward, our attention will particularly focus on Jesus’ Passion, Crucifixion, Death and Resurrection.

WILLIAM (Bill) GRIEVES - Postscript: Today (Wednesday), in a 70% filled church at Blackheath, we bade farewell to Bill via a Requiem Mass followed by burial in Blackheath Cemetery. Bill’s presence among us will be sorely missed for the voluntary work he did, most of which went unrecognised by parishioners, for his formal service to us as an acolyte, for his caring ways and friendships and for his support of all who sought his advice and help during his many years in residence here. Our condolences and prayers are extended to Barbara and family as they now begin the struggle to normalise their lives without Bill. May God guide each of you on this difficult journey and may you, Bill, now forever rest in God’s love and peace. Amen.

St Patrick’s Day is Saturday 17 March.

May the choicest blessings of the Saint be with you always.

The next Cosmology Spirituality morning will be held at the Good Samaritan Community House, 3 Valley Rd, Wentworth Falls on 16/3 10am-12pm. The Prologue of our new book, A New Harmony by Philip Newell ($23) will be discussed. Morning prayer and a time of silence as well as morning tea will be part of the program. As it is a new book, new participants are very welcome. Enquiries: Sr Jacinta 4757 2290

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER: Held on Friday afternoon (2nd March) in Blackheath’s Baptist Church, this joint venture was attended by over 30 persons from the local Christian community. This year prayers were directed towards a nation I had never heard of - “Suriname”. It certainly is a small struggling third world country that needs all the support it can muster. A wonderful afternoon tea was provided by our most welcoming Baptist hosts. It’s our turn next year! Many thanks also to Jan Roberts for co-ordinating our presence at this gathering!

God Bless! Father Bob

SACRAMENTAL PROGRAM 2018

First Holy Communion will be held in Sacred Heart Parish on Sunday 17 June. Parents are invited to enrol children for the sacraments of initiation. For children in year 3 or older who have been baptised, we are offering preparation for Reconciliation and First Holy Communion in the Sacred Heart Parish. If your child has not been baptised but you would like them to be baptised, please talk to Fr Bob who can be contacted on 4787 8811.

In preparation for the sacraments there will be a five classes.

These will take place in Term 2. If you have any questions or choose to register your child, please email the child’s name, your name and phone contact to the Parish Office:

shbheath2@bigpond.com

with the subject title: Sacraments. Or you can phone the Office on 4787 8540 (and leave a message with your contact details). To assist in planning, we need your response by Thursday, 22 March.

FATHER BOB’S BIRTHDAY BASH

We are celebrating Fr Bob’s 85th Birthday on Friday, 16th March. The Rhododendron Room has been booked at the Blackheath Golf Club from 6.00pm. Finger food will be served at a cost of $15.00 per head. We ask that you contribute $10.00 per head towards this supper. Drinks will be BYO but tea and coffee will be served. We anticipate our celebration to finish around 8.00pm. We will need numbers for catering purposes and have left a list on the noticeboard. Please give your money to Pat Wicks, Patricia Dee or Marilyn Rowe before the date. Looking forward to seeing you all there with your birthday voices.

PLANT, CAKE AND CRAFT STALL ON

EASTER SUNDAY: Please get busy creating contributions to make this a fundraising bonanza. Any culinary efforts need to show the ingredients on the container. Thanks.
