Jesus reminds his disciples that in glimpsing the things of heaven they have to be like the master of a household. That's a rich image. In Jesus' day such a person would have provided protection, love, security and justice for all.

God has given us free will and treasures, both new and old, to help us protect each other, love each other, feel secure in the truth and act justly. But we need to know that the choices we make in regard to these things have implications for how we live now and in the life to come..

Father Jolly's Reflection for the 17th Sunday in ordinary time.

Our attitudes are the mother of all our actions. Before anything moves toward action, it must first be an attitude. Then it becomes a perception, an idea and it becomes a feeling and moves into a decision. Nothing can happen without having an attitude. Our attitudes direct and define our lives. In today's First reading we see Solomon having the right attitude in life. The Lord appears to him and asks him in a dream "Ask what you would like me to give you".

If you were asked this question by the Lord, what would each of us be asking the Lord? Solomon's answer was "Give your servant a heart to understand how to discern between good and evil". The Lord said to Solomon, yes, you have asked the right thing. You have the right attitude in life. You did not ask for riches or long life or victory over your enemies. Yes, you have asked for the gift of discernment and gift of wisdom. The book of Proverbs says, "Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get Wisdom: and with all you are getting get understanding" (Proverb 4:7). There is nothing more important in life than having a proper discernment. Solomon chose to receive this gift and blessing from the Lord above everything else. What is discernment? Discernment is the ability to decide between truth and error, right and wrong. Discernment is the process of making careful distinctions in our thinking about truth. Discernment in life is important because it is the key to living an uncompromising life. It is the ability to exercise wisdom in every area of one's life.

Unfortunately, discernment is an area where most Christians stumble. Many times we are not armed enough to take a decidedly strong stand against the evil things. In his letter to the Romans, St. Paul points out to us the importance of proper discernment by saying "We know that by turning everything to their good. God co-operates with those who love him, with all those that he has called according to his purpose" (Romans 8:28). It is true discernment that helps us to discover God's purpose for each of us at each moment. It is through this discernment that we come to share his glory. Thus today's Second Reading invites us to discern and co-operate with God's plan for all of us. True discernment ultimately leads us to the discovery of true treasures in life. Just think for a moment the tremendous joy of the two men of the parable in today's Gospel reading must have felt when one discovered a hidden treasure and the other a priceless pearl (Matthew 13:44-46)! One discovered the treasure by chance, while the other discovered the pearl by deliberate search. They were ready to make any sacrifice and give up everything that was less value, compared to the joy and happiness the treasure and pearl brought to them. Yet it is not for pearl or this kind of treasure that ultimately our hearts yearn. These are images of the reality and not the reality. The reality for which our hearts yearn is for the reality of eternal joy. Those who discover this joy are the blessed ones. May we always discern God's will with the hope of receiving eternal joy. May we discern God's will with the help of the Holy Spirit.

Let our prayer to the Holy Spirit be:

*Holy Spirit come,
Fill me with your wisdom today
And be near me.*

*Speak in your still sweet voice to me so that
My soul may find answers to the many questions that I alone cannot find.
Stay with me all the time,
So that I may celebrate
The blessing of everlasting joy.*

PARISH COUNCIL UPDATE: Our thanks to our Covid-19 Team, David Buckley, John Barclay, Connie Adams and Monica Bright and Julie O'Keefe for helping to keep us safe. It is so hard to see our fellow citizens in Melbourne going through another series of lockdowns and more intrusive restrictions at present. We would not like to see conditions in Sydney escalate because of any actions on our part. So we have a plan and will remind everyone what has to be done to keep us all safe. Please be patient with us, and please keep your social distance at all times at Sacred Heart Church.

MEETING WITH MINISTRY GROUPS REPRESENTATIVES: This Sunday after mass the Parish Council and Fr Jolly will meet with representatives from ministry groups to hear how things are going for them in this time of transition. The council is looking forward to hearing how things are going with each ministry during this Covid-19 time, also this in-between time when we have Fr Jolly as our moderator till December before the appointment of a new lay Pastoral Leader for our parish. We would like to hear, too, what they might be thinking about for the future in terms of their ministry. Also on the agenda is to check with our ministry groups about the Parish Plan being developed to guide us over the coming 12 months or so.

COMMUNION SERVICE WORKSHOP: Sr Mary-Louise Walsh will run a workshop in Blackheath on next Wednesday 5th August from 1.30pm to 3pm. If you would like to attend to become better informed or wish to train to lead a service, please email/text or call me. bbright45@bigpond.com 0401 768 688 .
