22nd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YR A

We are invited, by Jesus, to see the burden of suffering in our lives as an opportunity to be faithful to his example. It also gives us an opportunity to be in solidarity with all those who suffer in our world. This is easier said than done. When we suffer in our daily lives, thoughts of others rarely come to mind easily, but it can be consoling to keep our suffering in context and know that we are not facing it alone. We are encouraged to see that suffering can be an opportunity to grow in love. If we understand our crosses as our particular schools of love, then we learn more about ourselves and God and are able to help others carry their crosses as well.

And while we are invited to take up our cross and follow Jesus, we never do it alone. If we have the eyes to see it and the humility to accept it, Christ, literally, hangs in there with us every step of the way.

Father Jolly's Reflection for the 22nd Sunday in ordinary time.

Anne Wilson Schaefer is a psychologist who has written a number of books about addiction and co-dependency, caused not only by drugs but also by the way people think and behave in modern society. She talks about what is going on today in the modern society and calls it as an addictive society. She describes in her book about the ways people think as a victimization of the oppressors, slavery of the masters, the powerlessness of the powerful. Today people tend to believe they are the lords of the social reality.

We live in an age of illusions and many embrace the illusions with passion in order to be happy. They believe in their heart that all pain and discomfort should be instantly eliminated and every fancy in life must be satisfied without any cost. They should get everything without self-denial and that we should and can live in a perfect world. This notion in life is a lie and repeated by many, as if repetition could transform a lie into truth.

God's plan for us is not to live a life of lie but the truth. St. Paul tells us and warns that we "must not model ourselves on the behaviour of the world around us" (Romans 12.2). This illusion is a lie which is an abomination to the Lord and He asks us to take up our daily cross and follow Him. He asks us not to run away from the crosses but to see them as opportunities to grow. By taking up our daily cross we make rooms in our lives for others and God. The cross is a necessary part of life. As a priest, I have seen many people dying including my own mother. After seeing many dying, I have come to a conclusion that there is no pain in dying, the pain is in living. Most of our comforts grow up between our crosses. They come from the fruits of someone carrying the cross. We can never talk about being a Christian without the cross. It is a cross to follow Christ. When we make our decision to follow him, we are expected to suffer rather than sin; it is a cross to be faithful to the duties of one's vocation, such as marriage, parenting, priesthood etc. Prophet Jeremiah went through torments to be faithful to his call to preach the word of God to the people. It was so heavy and he shouts at God saying: "O God, you have seduced me; you have made me daily laughingstock, the butt of every joke" (Jeremiah 20:7). The cross is the arms and the heart of Christian truth and life. It is hard to carry the cross but let us not fear the cross. It brings us lasting gains and healing. Jesus' cross was a sign of God's great love for us. He tells us through today's Gospel to take our crosses and follow him. May we follow him faithfully and closely by taking our crosses in life.

PARISH COUNCIL UPDATE: The appointment to the Upper Mountains Parish and Blackheath of Fr Abraham to serve our two communities in their pastoral and sacramental needs, leaves us now with the task of finding a pastoral leader for our parish community. Fr Abraham does not see parish leadership as his calling, only the pastoral and sacramental needs are his focus. We look forward to him joining us in the middle of September. In Vincent's emailed letter to us this week, he promised to write to the Parish shortly in response to the Transition Working group's interim report "Blackheath Dreaming" re the future leadership of our Parish. He has considered the TWG Interim Report, has spoken with parish council representatives, and has now set out the final stage of consultation. He has also set the end of September as the time to announce the new leadership model for our parish community. Please keep us all in your prayer over the coming weeks as we continue to seek God's guidance re the leadership of our parish community.

SEASON OF CREATION: On this Tuesday, 1st September, we are celebrating the World day of Creation with a mass at 11.00am. There is no need to book for this mass, just come along and you will be signed in on arrival.

Printed copies of the Social Justice Statement are also available on the brochure stand in the church.

SEASONS OF CREATION (Cont) Pope Francis (Laudato Si 86) writes: The universe as a whole, in all its manifold relationships, shows forth the inexhaustible riches of God. St Thomas Aquinas noted that multiplicity and variety 'come from the creator who willed that what was wanting in one, in the expressiveness of the divine goodness might be supplied by another, in as much as God's goodness could not be represented fittingly by one creature.' Hence we need to grasp the meaning and variety of things in their multiple relationships.

Whatever reasons we may usually have for protecting the planet and all its inhabitants, including the tiniest of these, Aquinas's words provide the deepest motivation for doing so. Every single aspect of Creation is the individual and careful work of God, providing another window into the divine creativity, another expression of the divine face, another embrace of the divine heart. (Fr Daniel O'Leary, An Astonishing Secret, p102)

PARISH PASTORAL PLAN: It is not too late to join the group of Parishioners developing our Parish Pastoral Plan. You are invited to join our next Zoom session. Please pick up a pack of materials after Mass this Sunday or next. We will have our next Zoom planning session on Monday, 7th September, from 4.30pm to 5.30pm. We will be working on the first Goal: Being a Jesus-inspired, humble, healing and merciful Parish Community. If you want to join in, please email me on bbright45@bigpond.com and I will send you an email with the Zoom link for this session, closer to the day.

ROS MAUNDER - May she rest in peace

We received the news this week that Fred Pateman has lost his dear friend and adopted daughter, Ros, who regularly came to Mass with Fred. Please keep them and Ros' family in your prayers.

SOCIAL JUSTICE SUNDAY – 30 AUGUST 2020 ~ This Sunday the Catholic Church in Australia celebrates Social Justice Sunday. This year, the Australian Bishops' Social Justice Statement is titled: To Live Life to the Full: Mental health in Australia today.

The COVID-19 pandemic is affecting the mental health of many members of our parishes, schools and communities. The Bishops invite us all to reject stigmatisation, to work for the transformation of social determinants of mental ill-health, and to call for policies and service provision that meets the needs of the poorest and most marginalised members of our community. Copy of the Statement and other resources can be found at: <https://socialjustice.catholic.org.au/2020/07/03/social-justice-statement-2020-21/>

From this same page you will also find links to Audio Podcasts, a Prayer Card, Liturgy Notes and an address from Bishop Vincent Long, Chair, Bishops Commission for Social Justice.
