29th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
In Jesus' day, we know that some people thought he was a Zealot. We can see why some people thought Jesus may have been a Zealot. He took the part of the poor, the sick, women and those who lived on the fringes of society. He attacked the religious authorities of his day and certainly stirred up trouble in many places he went. On the other hand he rejected violence, taught his followers to pray for their enemies and to return good for evil. Jesus showed us that the justice and equality God longs to see in the world comes from a community which is converted by love, not by weapons, fear or revenge. Jesus was no Zealot. Rather than undermine civil authority, however, Jesus, in this passage, supports it. By all means we should give to Caesar all that Caesar is justly entitled to have for the sake of the common good. A higher allegiance, however, goes to God, who will call all Caesars to account for what they have done and what they failed to do. And we might be asked to explain how we let them get away with it in the first place. © Richard Leonard SJ

29th Sunday (A)

Thanksgiving is central to our Christian Faith!

We gather every Sunday to give thanks to God for the Life, Death and Resurrection of Christ in our Eucharistic (Thanksgiving) Celebration.

We are encouraged at all times to give thanks for the gift of family and friends, our sisters and brothers in the Lord: all those who love and care for us

We strive to give thanks to God for the gift of ourselves: who we are, and even for the life experiences (good and bad) that make us the unique person that God wants us to be And we are called to ‘thank God... constantly’ for everything, so that the grace of God may grow within and flow out to others with whom we come into contact.

In the week ahead, let’s ask the Lord to help us give thanks at all times and in all circumstances, trusting in the God of infinite and unconditional love who leads us through the vicissitudes of life to eternal salvation!

This coming week Fr Abraham will be on Retreat from Sunday evening until Friday evening.

Accordingly the weekday mass timetable will be modified:

Mon 8:30am Katoomba, Tuesday 5:15pm Leura, Wednesday 6:30pm Blackheath,

Thursday 8:30am Leura, Friday 12 midday Katoomba.

We return to normal on Saturday morning.

CHANGE OF DATE - MINISTRY COORDINATORS MEETING: We have had to move this meeting to Sunday 8th November after Mass. (previously advertised for 25th October).

PARISH COUNCIL NOMINATIONS: There will be four positions on the Parish Pastoral Council to be filled at the AGM on 29th November. Please consider nominating for one of these positions. Nomination forms are available from the sacristy.

PARISH PASTORAL PLAN: Thank you to all who have helped develop this first draft of the Parish Plan: Pat Drummond, Claire Maguire, Paul Harris, Brian Bright, Julie O’Keeffe, John Tweedie, Adrian Carroll, David Buckley, Mary Ryan.

This first draft of the Parish Pastoral Plan has been sent separately to parish members who are on the email list. Some copies have been printed for those who do not have internet access and are available on the brochures stand. Please read this first draft and send your feedback and suggestions for the second draft to the Parish Council through the parish email or in writing to the Parish Office. The second draft will be completed in time for our Parish AGM on 29th November.

POPE FRANCIS’ NEW ENCYCLICAL: Christopher Lamb writes that “this encyclical draws on the example of his namesake, the Saint of Assisi, to inspire the people of the world to believe that even at this time of political and moral crisis, transformation can be achieved.

The encyclical is the third major document of Francis’ pontificate. The first, Evangelii Gaudium, an apostolic constitution, offers a manifesto for church renewal. The second, Laudato Si’, an encyclical, recasts the Church’s teaching on protecting the natural world. And his third, Fratelli Tutti, is a natural next step, as it looks to repair and enrich relationships across the human family. If the message of Laudato Si’ is “Everything is connected”, the message of Fratelli Tutti is “Everyone is connected”.

The 43,000-word document contains 287 paragraphs, and brings together all the elements in the Pope’s teaching on social justice, politics and the common good. The encyclical is not a direct response to the coronavirus but, as the Pope explains, the pandemic “unexpectedly erupted” while he was writing it and is “exposing our false securities”.

There are three points that stand out when reading the encyclical.

Pope Francis signs the encyclical in Assisi

First, it shows that at the heart of the Francis pontificate is a Gospel-based leadership rooted in the spirit of St Francis of Assisi, the Pope’s namesake. The text was signed in Assisi and released on 4 October, the feast day of the saint renowned for his message of peace, dialogue and care for creation. In Fratelli Tutti (the title is taken from the writings of St Francis), the Pope approaches the complexities of global politics with the story of the Good Samaritan and the story of St Francis’ 1219 peace mission, where he crossed the battle lines of the Crusades to meet the Sultan of Egypt in a bid to end the conflict.” TABLET 20TH OCTOBER 2020
