11 July 2021

Life always depends on how we read the signs!

In today's Gospel Jesus tells the twelve apostles that they should embody three signs: simplicity of lifestyle, dependence on others and hospitality. These instructions are such a contrast to what most of us value today, where it is often the rich and powerful, the independent and the inhospitable who are thought to be the best leaders.

For Jesus, however, the one truly sent in his name is the one who knows that another's worth comes from who they are, not what they have. It doesn't matter whether we're rich or poor. It's the way we use our money for others which reveals whether our wealth possesses us or not.

For Jesus, being 'a rock and an island' was not a sign of strength but one of fear and despair. A strong Christian is the one who rejoices in our dependence on each other, and is always grateful for the interconnectedness of life.

For Jesus, making room for others, especially toward those in legitimate need and even when it makes a large claim on us, is a pre-eminent sign of his Kingdom.

The Christian life is about reading the signs of the times. May our Eucharistic signs of his presence amongst us, the bread and wine, change us today, to match it with the best in being simple in lifestyle, happily dependent and extravagantly hospitable with our time, talent and energy for the sake of the Kingdom of God.

Reflection

Dear Brothers and Sisters!

Every faithful person is called by God to serve God's people. Our Readings highlight this today.

The prophet Amos was a farmer from the southern kingdom of Judah who would never have been near the northern shrine of Bethel, let alone speaking God's Word to the priests there! But God had chosen him and gave him the words that needed to be spoken; and he obeyed the Lord.

A number of the Apostles were fishermen, who had no previous experience in proclaiming God's Truth as revealed by Christ; and yet, here they were proclaiming the Gospel in the Galilean countryside. Like Amos, they had been called by God (through Jesus) and they obeyed; they went where they were sent.

The Scriptures are full of examples where God takes the initiative and chooses those whom God wants, even if such people don't seem (from the human standpoint) to have the necessary qualities to be God's messenger. But God gives those He chooses the Power to launch out into the deep, and a Message to speak in season and out of season. And in this way any weaknesses or shortcomings are turned into good and used for good purposes. Paul said something similar last week: "For it is when I am weak, then I am strong".

And so, my friends, we stand in the tradition of Amos, the Apostles and St Paul: people chosen by God, not because they had the necessary qualities to be prophets and preachers, but because they were faithful and obedient. Each one of us - from the day of our Baptism - have been chosen to be prophets to our own age, to the contemporary world which is so in need of hearing Divine Truth. We are chosen and sent to proclaim the Good News. Let's allow the Spirit to envelope and strengthen us so that we never tire in proclaiming the Message of Christ in all its richness to those with whom we meet on a daily basis.

Let us continue to pray for each other as we enter another week of Lockdown. It is so important that we keep up our prayers for ourselves and those dear to us; but also for those who are struggling on many levels at this time.

May our gracious God continue to bless each and every one of you!

Fr John

NAIDOC Week 4-11 July:

Every year, Catholics come together across Australia to acknowledge and celebrate the gifts of Australia's First peoples. Today our world is in need of healing – environmentally, spiritually and socially. We must all come together as a global community to fight the injustices of inequality, racism and environmental damage. For more information go to the NAIDOC or NATSICC websites and <https://www.naidoc.org.au/get-involved/2021-theme>.
