Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary
Time Year B
5 September 2021

Jesus opens our eyes to the reality of God's presence in our midst, in the goodness of people and in the tenderness of life, even in its vulnerability. He opens our ears to hear the word of God spoken to us by others, revealed to us through the created world. There is an eschatological dimension to being open to the word of God, because we are opened to hear something from the future. The prophets always speak about this future in the present tense. They see it happening already. Isaiah proclaims, 'Here is your God!' and the world is transformed. Jesus says 'Be open.' The good news always opens us to future possibilities, to personal and communal transformation, to a new creation. With the word of God, the future invades our present.

Although the eschatological future is already present to us, it is only unfolding, it has not yet opened completely. We still judge each other by appearances. We still miss the presence of God in the poor and the dispossessed, in those who suffer from disease or war or loneliness. We still shun those of another race, or those who have been shaped by another culture, or those who worship God in a different way. Although the eschatological future is already present, we have not yet put aside all of the biases of the past, we have not yet been fully transformed. But God has spoken, God has come to save us. God is trustworthy; God keeps faith forever.

Reflection

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ

In our second reading from the letter of St James we are reminded that human beings always make distinctions. We differentiate between people; and we can discriminate against those who are not part of 'our group'. It is part of our human condition, this 'making of distinctions between classes of people'.

However, such actions are incompatible with our Christian Faith.

We must do all we can to overcome this very human tendency to use different standards towards different people.

The rather dramatic gesture of St Francis of Assisi - who had a horror of leprosy - in kissing the leper whom he encountered is of great prophetic value!

Who are the metaphorical 'lepers' that we shun? Our vocation as a Christian is to imitate the Lord, and accept and embrace all; to forgive those who offend!

It is through our words and actions that we continue the mission of Christ: we are to help open the ears of those deaf to the Lord's goodness, and loosen the tongues of those who find it impossible to proclaim the Lord's loving care for all.

St James reminds us: "Listen, my brothers and sisters; it was those who are poor according to the world that God chose, to be rich in faith and to be heirs of the kingdom which he promised to those who love him".

And so, we must allow the Word of God and the Sacrament of the Eucharist to prompt us to be prophets for our Age - through the words we use and the actions we perform.

Let's do all we can to pull down all barriers and distinctions that divide and discriminate, so that all people may experience the love of God and the Salvation offered by Jesus Christ our Lord!

 A Happy Fathers Day to all those fathers in our Parish Community!

Bpoint - A new way to contribute to the Parish using your credit card.

During these long days of lockdown, the Parish really needs your support to allow us to continue to pay its ongoing bills. With the closure of all churches, we currently have no cash collections. Fortunately many of our parishioners use the Direct Bank Transfer option for our 2nd Collection. The funds raised continue to support our Parish during these difficult times.

For those who do not use Direct Bank Transfer, you will now have the opportunity to make contributions by credit card using Bpoint.

Bpoint is a new and easy way to contribute to both our 2nd collection (as noted above - funds raised are for our Parish) and also our 1st collection (funds raised are for the clergy of the Diocese). You will need a credit card (Visa or Mastercard only) and a mobile phone number.

Please follow this link and make your choice of option. You will be asked to show your name and mobile phone number: <https://www.bpoint.com.au/pay/CATHOLICPARISHOF-SACREDHEARTBLACKHEATH>

As an alternative to following the link, you can also use the attached QR Code, or you can click on the red 'Make a Payment' button on the first page of the Parish website.

Season of Creation: Each week a reflection will be included as an insert with our bulletin. This week there is a reflection on both the earth and the poor as well as an act of love for creation. The reflections are sourced from Catholic Earthcare. Julie O'Keeffe, Parish Earth Ministry Group
